SALUME OF PEACE! First of all, I want to thank all of you for having a great interest to participate in the Anbiam meetings, pray and celebrate the Mass together, and in prayer and communications of gifts. Â R â A R i" ®Â ® ® ® Maadha, Washington DC Arokiya Maadha, Ellicott City St. Francis Assisi and Falls Church St. Joseph, functioning well and contributing to spiritual growth and company between Tamil Catholics. Now we wanted to go a step safer. For a year or more, many of you have been expressing the desire to have a monthly mass in Tamil for catas members, and in a fixed place. We know that there are many other groups, including those who speak other Indian languages, who already celebrate the Holy Mass in their mother tongue, and that also weekly. Therefore, our request from a mass in Tamil is correct, although modest. The Alington Diseis had agreed to satisfy our request, and the search for a parish church began in February 2016. After a long wait and a complicated process of paper and meetings work, we can say, "Finally we have a Place for our monthly Mass in Tamil (day of child, all the saints and day of all souls) November 2021 with the rest. The Board of Cataca and I as the spiritual Welcome everyone to come in large numbers and take this opportunity. I understand that for some you could require one hour of travel more or less. But it is an opportunity that occurs only once a month that we do not want to lose. His participation not only contribute to his spiritual growth, but also help to establish a structure and a system for generations to come. We want to thank Rev. William Schardt, Párroco of the Church at our disposal and good use. We want to thank all those involved in this process! God bless you all! For more information about the parish: www.stbchurch.com, if you have any questions, please write to contact@catca.org in orations, Rev. P. Christy Arockiaraj Spiritual Director, Cataca. Among them, the Holy Rosary occupies a pre-eminent place because of its beauty, simplicity and the depth of its richness. It is universal in its appeal. The children clean it on their mother's lap. Mature people have turned to him in times of difficulty. It comes as a comfort in old age. Strengthen family bonds. The Rosary is a compendium of the Gospel. It contains in capsule form all the essential elements of the Gospel. Praying the Rosary: the beads of the Rosary consist of a small cross, a series of beads in a circular arrangement of five strands of ten beads, a hail Mary shall be prayed; The individual pearls are those for the Lord's prayer. The purpose of the rosary, however, is not to recite the prayers of the paths, but to repeat the prayers you know by heart as you contemplate, meditate actively, a mysteries (the incarnation of Christ), the sad mysteries (the suffering and death of Christ) and the glorious mysteries (the resurrection of Christ). Pope John Paul II has added a new set of areas of contemplation, the mysteries end with Christ who is 12 years old, teaching in the temple. The sad mysteries begin with Christ suffering at Gethsemane the night before his death. It was strange to contemplate the Mysteries a day and jump to the painful mysteries to the next; Something was missing what Jesus said and did when he was an adult. The Rosary had been so for almost a millennium. Why did Pope John Paul changed it? Ä € "He is making a statement at the end of his life about what is important for him," says Father C.J. McCloskey, from Washington Catholic Information Center. Â € œTo darling these mysteries, it is saying: â € ™ This is another invitation to look closely at the life of Christ, to contemplate and meditate "" As you meditate, the person who recites prayers approaches Jesus. and his mother Maria. Instructions «Step by step» To pray the Rosario starting with the Fosario cross: start as with all the prayers in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. (Making the sign of the cross while doing that) in the unique account just above the cross, pray the creed of the apostles. This and all the prayers of the Rosary are meditative sentences The following group of accounts, the prayer a counts, the prayer a counts, the prayer a counts, which is a single account, which is a announced the first divine mystery of contemplation. For example, if it were on a Monday, you would say that the first joyful mystery is «announcing», at this point prayers the prayer of «Our Father.» Now this will take you to the first década, or set of 10 rosary accounts. Then pray 10 Bird Marias while contemplating the first mystery, example: the announcing. After the 10th Ave MarÃa you will be completed the first of 5 decade that make up a coroner of the rosary. Now you get to another single account, at this point, you pray to the ... Gloria to the Father ... Then (in the same account) announces the next or second mystery. For example: if on Monday of him and his prayer the joyful mysteries, the second mystery. You continue to pray the same way at all times. If you intend to recite a Coronilla (a single set of mysteries) at the end of the fifth mystery, you will return to the carpenter, where all the decades are united with the bottom of the rosary containing the cross. When you get to the carpenter, you decide whether or not you want to say another Coronilla or end. If you decide to say another Coronilla, just announce the next Mystery Therapy and continue. If you want to finish, just say the Glory to the Father, the Oh My Jesus, the Lord's Prayer and finish the rosary is divided into three parts, each with five mysteries. While reciting each mystery, he begins by reciting one "Our Father", three "Hail Mary" and the "Gloria Ser" (which is a decade ago): THE JUYFUL MYSTERIES (Recite Mondays and Saturdays, and Sundays during Advent) 1.
