However little known the feelings or views of such a man may be on his first entering a neighbourhood, this truth is so well fixed in the minds of the surrounding families, that he is considered the rightful property of some one or other of their daughters. Bennet made no answer. This was invitation enough. Long says that Netherfield is taken by a young man of large fortune from the north of England; that he came down on Monday in a chaise and four to see the place, and was so much delighted with it, that he agreed with Mr. Knowledge BaseMorris immediately; that he is to take possession before Michaelmas, and some of his servants are to be in the house by the end of next week. Single, my dear, to be sure! A single man of large fortune; four or five thousand a year. What a fine thing for our girls! How can it affect them? You must know that I am thinking of his marrying one of them, and therefore you must visit him as soon as he comes. Staar English 2 2021 Answer Key: Resources - lead4wardYou and the girls may go, or you may send them by themselves, which perhaps will be still better, for as you are as handsome as any of them, Mr. Bingley may like you the best of the party. I certainly have had my share of beauty, but I do not pretend to be anything extraordinary now. When a woman has five grown-up daughters, she ought to give over thinking of her own beauty. Bingley when he comes into the neighbourhood. Only think what an establishment it would be for one of them. Sir William and Lady Lucas are determined to go, merely on that account, for in general, you know, they visit no newcomers. Indeed you must go, for it will be impossible for us to visit him if you do not. STAAR Released Test Questions I dare say Mr. Bingley will be very glad to see you; and I will send a few lines by you to assure him of my hearty consent to his marrying whichever he chooses of the girls; though I must throw in a good word for my little Lizzy. Lizzy is not a bit better than the others; and I am sure she is not half so handsome as Jane, nor half so good-humoured as Lydia. But you are always giving her the preference. Bennet, how can you abuse your own children in such a way? You take delight in vexing me. You have no compassion for my poor nerves. I have a high respect for your nerves. They are my old friends. I have heard you mention them with consideration these last twenty years at least. Bennet was so odd a mixture of quick parts, sarcastic humour, reserve, and caprice, that the experience of three-and-twenty years had been insufficient to make his wife understand his character. STAAR PRACTICE TEST REVIEWHer mind was less difficult to develop. She was a woman of mean understanding, little information, and uncertain temper. When she was discontented, she fancied herself nervous. The business of her life was to get her daughters married; its solace was visiting and news. Chapter 2 Bennet was among the earliest of those who waited on Mr. He had always intended to visit him, though to the last always assuring his wife that he should not go; and till the evening after the visit was paid she had no knowledge of it. Staar English Answer Key | Literary Theory and CriticismIt was then disclosed in the following manner. Observing his second daughter employed in trimming a hat, he suddenly addressed her with: Bingley will like it, Lizzy. Long promised to introduce him. Long will do any such thing. She has two nieces of her own. She is a selfish, hypocritical woman, and I have no opinion of her daughters. Have a little compassion on my nerves. You tear them to pieces. Long does not come back till the day before; so it will be impossible for her to introduce him, for she will not know him herself. Bingley to her. Bennet, impossible, when I am not acquainted with him myself; how can you be so teasing? One cannot know what a man really is by the end of a fortnight. The girls stared at their father. I cannot quite agree with you there. What say you, Mary? For you are a young lady of deep reflection, I know, and read great books and make extracts. Mary wished to say something sensible, but knew not how. If I had known as much this morning I certainly would not have called on him.
