It's a Bad school does a better job of replicating reality than other educational environments. Unlike other school simulators, though, this game does not require you to live like a good student. Instead, you'll play the bad boy and rebel against the educational system. You're completing tasks and gaining Bad Guy's trust. Even if you give up being a coach, you can still play well and maintain order in your school. Bad guys at school is a life simulation game in a high school setting. However, it does not behave like a typical school simulation, as shown. In addition to online and single-player modes, the game features different game modes, so you can play cooperatively or competitively with others. In this mode, both the student and the teacher are involved and assignments require working to earn prestige and capital. In any mission you complete, you will collect objects for your map. As well as to buy things from the joke store, you will raise money to do so. The purpose of any object is to carry out a certain task. Story There are the bad guys at school. Some cute Easter eggs can be found on the mobile version of the game. The game is about 30 minutes long, but there's no improvement. The game in the beginning should teach you everything you'll need to know. Also bare is the diagram, with houses that don't have any furniture. Also, you don't have to contend with artificially intelligent NPCs when you can talk to anything in the game. You can play as a student if you want to be a villain. You can either cooperate as a teacher to end school violence and abuse, or you can allow it to continue. In single-player and multiplayer games, you will always be able to finish Glory and Villain quests. You can choose to be either an instructor or a student in multiplayer mode. To earn the most points at the end of the game, the main goal of any team is to be successful. You can buy many different items from stores if you are focused on gaining card packs and cards, or making money. Everything serves a specific purpose and helps you progress through the game faster. Look out at the world around you and interact with the natural elements. The number of professors in the game is rather limited, so in order to be successful as a professor, you will have to work harder. Bad Guys at School Mobile Gameplay Bad Guys at school mobile gameplay You can act out the role of a student leader who has banded together to stand up to the school system, rather than being a teacher who has to deal with abuse and brutality. When you play as a single player, Bad Guys at School encourages you to join gangs and collect large sums of money to be the gangster of the game's top bad guy. In multiplayer mode, you are both a teacher and a student. Both teams will have to score the most points after the game to win. ReviewUser 1: The best game is very exciting, with graphics and soundtrack, story, and user interface. I like its beautiful atmosphere which makes it easy to use.User 2: The graphics quality is very good, the background music is good, the user interface is fluid, the gameplay is varied, and the game is good for whatever theme we bring as a theme. Some of the things that generate interest in this title are all the skins and accessories that each character has.User 3: The character design and gameplay of the game are very good, the music is also good, some costumes are also provided for free in the games, the disadvantage is that the costumes are very expensive. download game bad guys at school android apk. bad guys at school game free download android
