

I'm not a robot

Hospitality training academy

Our lawyers are knowledgeable experts in labour law, salary agreements, and collective agreements. Members receive free assistance during labour disputes. For more information on legal support → We have 15 regional offices across Norway and seven proprietary associations with the Norwegian Hospitality Association, providing local expertise and skills for your hospitality business. Read about NHO Reiseliv Academy → The Norwegian Hospitality Association promotes tourism and hospitality through various communication channels and assists member companies in media dealings. For more information on PR, Communications, and Media → We work to promote tourism and hospitality interests on the political stage at central, local, and regional levels. Learn about our political influence → NHO Pension offers members tailored insurance with excellent terms and conditions as a membership benefit from Storebrand. The Knowledge Academy is the world's largest training provider, offering 3,000+ courses in over 490 locations across 190 countries. Our Oslo location provides flexible learning options and comprehensive courses to support your career advancement. Oslo, Norway is a vibrant city known for its high-quality business education, rich cultural heritage, and stunning natural beauty. With three international accreditations, the city's business school stands out among Norwegian institutions. The University of Oslo Metropolitan, formerly Oslo and Akershus University College, offers vocational courses in fields like engineering, nursing, and journalism. The city's GDP is $405.41 billion, with a projected population of 800,000 by 2030. Oslo is home to several iconic landmarks, including the Royal Palace, Viking Ship Museum, and Oslo Opera House. The city's culture is a blend of history and modernity, with museums, galleries, music venues, and festivals showcasing its unique spirit. Norwegian and English are both official languages, making it easy for visitors and residents to communicate. The Knowledge Academy offers various courses in Oslo, including Agile Business Analysis, Change Management, and PMP Certification. Some of the highest-paid jobs available in the city include Agile Coach, Change Managers, and Agile Project Managers. The academy also provides Bespoke Services to prioritize delegate needs. The Knowledge Academy offers various services including course content development and more. To learn more, visit their 'KnowledgePass' section on the home page. They also offer training vouchers in Oslo through their 'FlexiPass' and 'Knowledge Pass', which allow delegates to book courses over a period of 6 months or 12 months respectively. The Knowledge Academy provides multiple resources such as informative Blogs, News pieces, and previous learners' testimonials under their 'Knowledge Centre' section. They also offer over 3,000 courses in various categories like Project Management and Data Science. Cookies are used on the website to provide a good user experience. Cookie information is stored in the browser and helps the team understand which sections of the website users find most interesting. Strictly Necessary Cookies should be enabled at all times so that preferences can be saved for cookie settings. Note: I removed the repeated privacy overview section and kept only one instance. Our website stores cookie information in your browser, which helps us understand what sections you find most interesting and useful. This allows our team to improve the user experience. We use strictly necessary cookies to save your preferences for cookie settings; if disabled, you'll need to enable or disable them every time you visit. At the Hospitality Training Academy, we're dedicated to revolutionizing the hospitality industry through expert training programs that elevate guest experiences and foster employee excellence. Our comprehensive services include a complete 360-degree solution for start-ups and established F&B companies, tailored hotel departmental training, leadership development, staff development, and more. We empower entrepreneurs with our expertise and integrity, ensuring that every aspect of your business receives top-notch attention. Our Academy offers collaborative mastermind sessions and ongoing support to help hotels and independent restaurants continuously improve and adapt to industry changes. We pride ourselves on having experienced trainers who have a deep understanding of the hospitality sector. We tailor our training programs to address the unique needs of each client, resulting in measurable improvements in guest satisfaction and employee performance. Our mission is to elevate hospitality standards by providing unparalleled support to hotels and restaurants. By partnering with us, you can transform your team and create unforgettable guest experiences. Adrineh and her team at Hospitality Training Academy collaborate with various departments such as the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Labor to provide rehabilitation services. Adrineh is a certified Global Career Development Facilitator (GCDF) and serves as an examiner for the California Awards for Performance Excellence (CAPE). Stephanie Koontz leads quality, learning and compliance efforts with 19 years of experience in employment and training programs. She develops and implements quality assurance and compliance programs, and facilitates various training courses. Stephany Morris Nelson is the Director of Human Resources at Hospitality Training Academy. A career expert with a Business Management Certification from Los Angeles Valley College, Stephany also holds PHR and SHRM-CP credentials. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Professionals in Human Resources Association (PIHRA). Jorge Galvez oversees finance operations with over 22 years of experience managing public funds and overseeing JTPA, WIA, and WIOA programs. He provides budget management and cost allocation plans. Gabriela Jimenez is a seasoned non-profit leader with nearly 20 years of experience in youth and workforce development, as well as program direction for Hospitality Training Academy. Gabriela Abumbrad is a seasoned professional with expertise in recruitment, case management, and job placement. She is committed to leading with integrity, dependability, and open communication. Gabriela has played a key role in placing hundreds of clients into permanent employment or post-secondary education through her work on strategic program coordination and management. With a deep understanding of the hospitality industry, we at [Institution] have developed practical training programs that empower professionals to excel in every aspect of their career. Our team has first-hand experience as operators, event managers, captains, waiters, and bartenders, which fuels our passion for creating meaningful learning experiences. We offer comprehensive courses, both online and offline, focusing on fine dining etiquette, leadership skills, and mastery in hospitality. This training enables students to build confidence and achieve their career goals. For clients and organizations, we provide customized consultancy services and team training programs that enhance staff performance and guarantee exceptional guest experiences. Our mission is to educate, enrich, and inspire the next generation of hospitality leaders. Leveraging our expertise from managing over 10,000 events globally, we create innovative solutions for the industry. Our approach combines technical precision with human connection, resulting in unforgettable guest experiences. Partnering with us offers numerous benefits, including: + A proven track record of success with over 10,000 global events + Training tailored to real-world scenarios for measurable results + A collaborative approach that closely works with individuals and businesses to meet their goals