I'm not a robot!

The image shows a Kindle device displaying a book page. At the top, there is a blue decorative bar with the word "kindle" in white lowercase letters. Below this is a black header bar with the text "Type location (1 - 4436)" and "Current location: 693". The main content area shows a portion of a book page with the number "120" highlighted in a white box. The text on the page reads: "Carver held his injured arm to his chest along with a few of the spilled swords. "He dropped the damn box," Jenkins said. The man was down on his knees as well and looked at Carver with accusation. "Stupid weakling." A red rectangular box highlights the word "go" in the sentence above. Below the book page is a numeric keypad with a standard layout: 1, 2 ABC, 3 DEF, 4 GHI, 5 JKL, 6 MNO, 7 PQRS, 8 TUV, 9 WXYZ, *, 0 +, #, ., and a backspace key. The Windows logo is visible at the bottom left, and a search icon is at the bottom right.
