People can't get enough wages; But as far as I'm concerned, all I can say is thank you Lord for everything you've done for me. Second poem Homeless people live in the streets. And some say that drug addiction just won't end. Robbers and robbers, no place seems safe; but you will be my protection every step of the way. And I want to thank you Lord for everything you've done for me. Chorus (It could have been me) thank you, (outside) thank you, (no food) thank you, (and no clothes) thank you, (or alone) thank you, (no friend) thank you, (or just another number) thank you, ( with a tragic ending) thank you oh. (But you didn't see fit) Thank you, (Let it be nothing) Thank you, (For every day by your power) Thank you, (You help me walk) Thank you; thank you Lord for everything you've done for me. Vampire One (I want to thank you for your love) Thank you (I want to thank you for your strength) Thank you (I want to thank you for your protection) Thank you (every hour) Thank you. Vampire 2 I want to thank you for your love (thank you), I want to thank you for your strength (thank you), I want to thank you for your protection (thank you), every hour (thank you). The economy is down, people can't be paid enough, but all I can say for myself is thank you Lord for everything you've done for me. Verse 2: People who are homeless, living on the streets and addicted to drugs, as some say, just can't win. Robbers and robbers, there are no safe places, but you will be my protection at every step; and I want to thank you Lord for everything you've doneto me. Chorus: (could be me) thank you, (out) thank you, (no food) thank you, (and no clothes) thank you, (all alone) thank you, (no friend) thank you, (or just another number) thank you, ( with a tragic end) thank you, oh (But you did not see fit) thank you, (so none of this happened) thank you, (and every day with your strength) thank you, (you go on, hold me) thank you; And I want to thank You, Lord, for everything You've done for me. [Vamp 1:] (I want to thank you for your love) thank you, (for your strength) thank you, (for your protection) thank you, (every hour) thank you. Author(s): Walter Hawkins Verse 1: Tragedies are commonplace. All sorts of diseases, running people. The economy is collapsing, people aren't getting paid enough, like me, all I can say is, "Thank you Lord for all you've done for me." Verse 2: Homeless people living on the streets and addicted, some say they just can't beat them. Robbers and robbers, no place is safe, be my protector every step of the way and I want to say thank you Lord for all you have done for me. Chorus: (could be me) thank you, (out) thank you, (no food) thank you, (and no clothes) thank you, (or left alone) thank you, (no friend) thank you, (or just another number) thank you, ( with a tragic end) thank God. (But You did not see fit) Thank You, (so none of this happened) Thank You, (because every day by Your power) Thank You, (You save me) Thank You; (and I want to say) Thank you Lord for everything you've done for me. Repeat the chorus. Vamp 1: I want to thank you for your love (Thank you). Thank you for your strength (thank you) Thank you for protecting (thank you) every hour (thank you). Vamp 2: (I want to thank you for your love) thank you, (I want to thank you for your strength) thank you, (thank you for protecting) thank you, (every hour) Thank you. ad-lib to the end while the chorus says "Thank you" Walter Hawkins Lyrics to "Thank you"It's an ordinary place All kinds of illnesses People slip away Economy in decline People can't get enough money But to me all I can say is Thank you Lord for all you've done for me Homeless people living on the streets and drugs Addiction Some say they just can't defeat murderers and burglars there seems no safe place but You have been my protector every step of the way and I want to thank You Lord for All You have done for me, Me could it be ) thank you (off) thank you (without food) thank you (and without clothes) thank you (or left alone) thank you (without friend) thank you (or just another tragic number) thank you (with a tragic ending) thank you (but you didn't see fit) thank you (let go) thank you (every day with your strength) thank you (hold me) thank you (and I want to say) thank you I want to thank you for your love (thank you) thank you for your strength (thank you ) Thank you for your protection ( Thank you) Every hour (Thank you for the cure) (I want to say thank you for the love) Thank you (Thank you for your strength) Thank you (Thank you for your protection) Thank you (Every hour) Thank you Author(s): Walter Hawkins Album: "Love Life IV" (1990) (1990)
