The A-a-the four pages of the unit help build your ability and your linguistic knowledge. These pages include language, listening, reading, writing, grammatical, vocabulary and pronunciation. They are followed by target activity that will help you put together what you've learned. The Explore section of the Unit begins with a keyword, which looks at one of the most common and useful words in English. It also includes a unit through cultures or an independent learning section, and then explore a task of language writing or exploration. The Explore section offers you a job of language and extra skills, all aim to help you become a better English communicator and a more effective student. The Look Game section takes another look at the destination language for the unit, helping you to review and extra skills, all aim to help you become a better English communicator and a more effective student.
