The Olema House in Point Reyes, the new addition to the Mosaic Hotel Group's boutique hotel portfolio, offers a revisited experience on the doorstep of Point Reyes National Seashore. A reincarnation of the Lodge at Point Reyes, Olema House embodies the idyllic countryside of West, a friendly modern tavern. Originally built in 1988, Olema House is located at the foot of Point Reyes National Seashore, one of Northern California's most sought after destinations. The aspiring getaway is an ideal starting point for a great adventure, from the first hiking and biking trails to birdwatching and some of the West Coast's most picturesque beaches. Olema House sits on four private acres of lawns and quiet gardens and consists of three upgraded cottages perfect for families or groups, a handful of two-level suites with dramatic vaulted ceilings, as well as charming cozy-chic guest rooms with fireplace, patio or terrace. All rooms are furnished with radiant heated floors and Beekman bathroom amenities and have a west view of the Olema River, Iverness Ridge and Mt. Wittenberg. Olema House is a local art and artisan enclave infused with modern furnishings and materials inspired by the destination. Standout design elements represent a sense of place, such as accented drifting mirrors, wind domes, oysters, and pieces of photographic art showing the Northern California Coast. Additional amenities include an open lawn area with picnic tables and Adirondack chairs; and books found in The Den, an elegantly furnished alcove with vintage cameras, colorful art and comfortable seating. A complimentary daily breakfast includes brick bread, coffee and Marin French cheese. The culinary program at Due West, the hotel's modern tavern serving farm-to-table menus, is led by new chef Justin Bruckert, who brings with him three years of experience working with Northern California ingredients through the cuisines of Marin County. Bruckert's revisited menu highlights location and seasonality, shining a spotlight on the region's best small farms including Skyhill Farms, Heidrun Meadery, Marin Sun Farms and Tomales Bay Oysters. The refreshed rotating menu continues to celebrate signature dishes incorporating new dishes and sides such as fish and chips, blue cheese fries, and fresh house made vegetables. The drinks program focuses on classic cocktails age canna and revisited, as well as regional wines and craft beer. craft.
