FC Barcelona FemenÄ is Spain's most successful women's club both nationally and in Europe, having won six league titles, eight Queen's Cup, a Spanish Supercup and a UEFA Women Champions League. Formed in 1970 by the 18-year-old "Imma" CabecerÄjn, the club was an established member of Spain's first recognized women's league, the Primera Division (founded as the National League). Although closely related to the club for decades, the team did not establish itself as an official section of FC Barcelona until 2002, when the club definitively incorporated the Club FemenÄE Barcelona into its sports structure. Through battles with promotion and relegation, the club won its first league title in 2011, and over the next 4 years it won 7 main titles: 4 league titles and 3 Queen's Cups. Since the club's professionalisation in 2015, Barcelona has become one of Spain's most successful teams in the UEFA Women's Champions League. They were the first Spanish club to reach a quarterfinal of the League of the first to reach a semi-final of the champions.The first to reach an end of the Champions League, and the first to win it, which did it in 2021. By winning the Champions League, FC Barcelona became the first club to win a title of the Champions League. For your men as for fiscal football sections. . Later they became the first team of Spanish women to complete a Triple Continental after winning the Queen Cup 2020-21. FC Barcelona female belongs to one of the four professional football clubs in Spain whose legal entity is not that of a sports corporation (sad), since its property rests with its partners or socis.
