Character Traits

Writers use four main methods to reveal a character's traits:

- Direct Comments about the character's personality by the narrator, or storyteller voice.
EXAMPLE: Josh was nervous as he got ready to play a piano duet with his grandmother.
- Physical Description of a character's appearance.
EXAMPLE: Josh sat stiffly at the piano bench. He towered a head above his grandmother. He wore an old suit his grandfather, the jazz player had worn.
- Speech, Actions, or Thoughts of a character.
EXAMPLE: Josh had spent many hours of practice at the piano. He'd given up fun times with friends. He was always saying, "Sorry, I can't. I have to practice." Now his hands shook as he wondered, "What if they laugh?"
- How Others React to the character.
EXAMPLE: His grandmother had encouraged him, telling him he had talent. Now she whispered, "Josh? Are you ready to give the world it's best?" Slowly his confidence returned, and he nodded to the count of four. Grandma winked with pride.

Directions: Read each descriptive sentence in the left column. Decide on one character trait word that the description reveals about the character. Write your answer in the column labeled "Character Traits." Decide which method(s) of characterization is being used. Write the type of method in the space provided for "Methods of Characterization."

Descriptive Sentence	Character Traits	Method of Characterization

Who Am I?

Directions: Read the paragraphs below. Think about who the narrator is in each short story. Try to picture the character. Check the best answer that tells who the character is.

1. I begin the day with my small tools to clean my patient's teeth. I placed the paper bib on her and shined a light down so I could see. I found one cavity! After all the teeth were cleaned, I gave her a toothbrush.	☐ cashier ☐ clown ☐ teacher ☐ dentist
2. When I get to work I pass out papers and set up a game for the kids to play. When everyone arrives, we read a story and discuss it. The bell rings and it is time for lunch. I correct some papers and prepare the next lesson.	☐ teacher ☐ doctor ☐ actor ☐ chef
3. I put on my white shirt and begin chopping carrots. Behind me is a pot of boiling broth. I choose some nice herbs and chop them to place into the soup. When it is done, I pour a bowl of hot soup and hand it to the waiter.	☐ teacher ☐ police officer ☐ chef ☐ actor
4. Today has been very busy. I replaced a knee and set a broken arm into a cast. Now, I am examining a patient with a sore leg. He may need some medicine. Later, I take off my white coat and stethoscope and relax.	☐ farmer ☐ doctor ☐ police officer ☐ dentist
5. Before the show I practice my lines. I like to look into the mirror and pretend. I fix my hair and makeup and get into my costume. Before the curtain rises, I am nervous but eager to begin performing.	☐ doctor ☐ teacher ☐ actor ☐ clown
