But there are many more Android users than those of iPhone. This means that the possibility of overloading the social network is even higher. So the social network must put many more infrastructures in place To keep up with the question, which takes time. Danna When the Club House means that the game store is similar to this. But you don't have to settle for Knock-off. There are exciting Android apps that can scratch your itch " Social Audio "also offering something new. Here are our favorites. Our complete guide on when expecting Clubhouse for AndroidTwitter (Image Credit: Twitter) Twitter is no more only for tweets. The microblogging site is testing what calls Twitter spaces. A rival direct to the Club House, this new feature works in the same way: users can create a voice chat, which allows them to invite others and talk around a topic. And the Android beta is out now. As you expect, not all the functionality is still there. While anyone can listen and adhere to a conversation when they see a purple icon appear in the fleet bar, only some small users can accommodate a space. And at the time of writing, those who use the Android beta don't even do it. Only iPhone users can set the conversation. But for the first adopters eager to try something new, this is a great way to get a feeling for social audio. While entering the ground floor of a network that I wouldn't have only millions, but hundreds of millions of chat users with the Clubhouse if and when spaces pull out everyone. Download Twitter on Google Play Store Herestereo (Image Credit: Stereo) Clubhouse started as a way for silicon valley types to talk about tech and became more fun as it was developed. Meanwhile, stereo feels as if it were designed to entertain from the beginning. It also allows you to host or tune live conversations, with the option for listeners to Chime in. But encourages hosts to be the most fun possible with a weekly money prize up to $ 20,000 for the best show. Maybe not surprise that there are thousands of shows to choose from, covering everything from news and sports to the comedy. Fortunately, the app really has good research feature, allowing you to filter by topic and personality. And unlike the Club House, Stereo allows you to respond to the previous episodes and also tells you when users are programmed to talk, so you don't miss it. Download stereo on Google Play Store Herecappuccino (Image Credit: Cappuccino) In many ways, the cappuccino is the Anti-Club House. Rather than talking about length for a live public around the world, it is designed to share audio clips with friends and family. But if you love the sound clubhouse intimate, this could be exactly what you are looking for. Every morning, cappuccino serves messages Å € â,~ "calling Å € â,~ Å â,~ Å â,~ Å "€ registered by You and other group members in the last 24 hours.
